

CALGARY BREASTFEEDING MATTERS GROUP
FOUNDATION PRESENTS

BEYOND THE BASICS: CARING FOR THE
BREASTFEEDING MOTHER AND BABY

Registration Starts March 1, 2019

www.cbmfg.ca

early bird rate $150

standard rate $175 after May 2, 2019

Full time students $100

Refunds minus $15 admin fee before May 9, 2019

Registration ends May 9, 2019

CERPS applied for

May 16, 2019

Ramada Plaza Calgary Airport
3515 26th St. N.E.
Calgary

Program

Dr. Yusuf is a neonatologist with Pediatric Residency training from Yale New Haven Children's Hospital and neonatal fellowship from Washington University in St. Louis. He is an Associate Professor in the section of neonatology and Chair, of the Neonatology Research Group. His area of research are maternal conditions affecting neonatal outcomes with a focus on preeclampsia and smoking during pregnancy. Dr. Yusuf has published several innovative studies in the area of preeclampsia. Dr. Yusuf is a full member of the Alberta Children's Hospital Research Institute and holds several independent research grants.

7:30-8:15	Registration and Continental Breakfast
8:15-8:30	Opening Remarks
8:30-9:30	Cannabis use during pregnancy and lactation: Implications for maternal, fetal and newborn health.
9:30-10:00	Nutrition Break
10:00-11:00	Gestalt Breastfeeding
11:00-12:00	Biomechanics of Suck
12-12:45	Lunch
12:45-13:45	Nipple Pain and Breast Infection
13:45-14:00	Nutrition Break
14:00-15:00	Supporting Successful Infant Feeding Outcomes in Vulnerable Women
15:00-15:45	Case Studies
15:45-16:00	Closing Remarks

Kathy O'Grady Venter is a registered nurse, retired midwife and International Board Certified Lactation Consultant. She is a WHO/UNICEF trained BFHI assessor, a breastfeeding educator and BFI consultant. Kathy works as an IBCLC at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre in Toronto. She is the two time recipient of the Canadian Lactation Consultant Association Award for Clinical Excellence and past Chair of the Breastfeeding Committee for Canada.